Roll No. CT16129

Counselling Faculty: Mr. Bhushan Deshpande. Department of Computer technology.

Problem Statement: Student was good in academic but was introvert and not confident. He faced difficulty in opening up with his batch mates and Teachers. He wished to score good marks and get the placement.

He has joined the UG programme in year 2016. He was always good in studies but was quiet introvert and lack of confidence. His aim is to get selected in one of the good organizations He was unable to find the way to get proper guidance on his own and due to which he was feeling underestimated and was depressed. This underestimation and depression was affecting his work and studies. His symptoms of depression included absentees from the college, withdrawing from participation in activities once he enjoyed, feeling of insecurity in career, unhappiness and difficulty in concentrating in class.

Guidance by Counsellor:

The Counsellor noticed it and talked to the student and then contacts his parents. There were few sessions of discussion arranged with the parents and student to discuss the problem. Findings revealed from the discussions were that personal, home sickness and emotional challenges, rather than study related and academic performance and depression. The student was inert about disclosing personal information about himself and has deep sense of fear about his career, he will qualify GATE exam or will get placement or not.

Counsellor asked the student to focus on his goal and own thought process to overcome his problem. Counsellor also suggested him to join Online Classes of Aptitude coaching and go through some videos to boost his confidence. He helped him to learn the ways to react to things and challenges on his own perceptions. Counsellor asked him to come with strategy to do well in Gate exam. He gave him homework and Assignments to boost his confidence and asked him to solve some previous papers. Counsellor also guided him to learn the recent software's apart from academic curricular which will help him in getting placement. Solely because of student hard work and guidance given by counsellor his confidence boost up and he overcome his depression. He was always a bright student, that's why he was taking interest in academic and social activities. His class attendance also improved and he was taking more and more confident in getting good marks. Counsellor kept discussing new strategies to manage his academic and other preparations. Tremendous improvement was observed in the student as he started participating in various activities in college.

He started to involve himself in various competitions which are useful in Gate exam and placement. It helped him to ease stress and gave him new perspective on challenges and problems.

Because of his sheer hard work and Guidance given by Counsellor, he scored CGPA of 8.93 in B.E. degree. His Parents thanked the college teachers and Management for continued support of his teachers and particularly Counsellor.
